

Accessories – Transfer Stations BT-Attachment Kit

This transfer nesting station is our standard design and works on all of the LiCONiC Products. The kit can be used for customers who have changed the design of their work-station and need a standard solution for their next design.

The components used are the most reliable and highest quality products available. All of our manufactured components are electro-coated for the prevention of corrosion and contamination from external conditions.

Specifications

Applicable:	All Bench Top units
Design:	Transfer station support for the needs of Bench Top units